TO: ALLIANCE Representative Council Reps
FROM: Alliance Hockey
DATE: April 4, 2006
RE: Policy on F1 form waivers

---

At the March 29th Representative Council Meeting the following Policy was adopted in regards to F1 form waivers. With upcoming try-outs and inquiries on F1 form waivers please post on your web-sites and distribute to registrars and coaches.

ALLIANCE Minor Hockey Association adopted the following policy on March 29th, 2006

ALLIANCE Hockey Member Minor Hockey Associations cannot issue waivers prior to an actual try-out. In the event of associations being closed to F1 form waivers a participant will be given the opportunity to participate in the next adjacent centre or zone that accepts F1 for waivers.

ALLIANCE Hockey member associations will not issue waivers to participants who are seeking an association of their choice.

Rationale:

- ALLIANCE Hockey supports the Hockey Canada rule that you play where you reside.
- ALLIANCE Hockey feels that the majority of these players are recruited during summer hockey programs by parents and Coaches which is a form of tampering
- ALLIANCE Hockey believes in promoting community, and tomorrow's leaders through character, work ethic and determination.

Thanks

Kind regards

Tony L. Martindale
